WARM DEBATE BETWEEN LEADERS

HOUSE HEARS HUMOROUS REPARTEE BETWEEN THE LEADERS.

STONE MAKES SPEECH

Boutell and Williams in The Main Points in the House—Congratulations on Both Sides at the Close of the Argument.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Mr. Boutell, (Rep. Ill.) addressed the house for nearly two hours today, in reply to statements made by Williams of Mississippi, the minority leader, in his "stand pat" speech a few days ago. Williams in turn replied to Boutell.

The house had under consideration at the time, the urgent deficiency bill. Mr. Boutell received the closest attention of the chamber, and when he spoke of the passing of the last trace of bitterness between the north and the south, he was loudly applauded on both sides.

Boutell was humorous and grave, pathetic and convincing.

Williams, in his reply, was likewise humorous. Referring to the Philippines, he said: "If that is another thing you want to stand pat on, stand pat then, on your Un-American, Old European—army—military—camp—grap nation policy of indefinite colonialism."

When Mr. Boutell had concluded, Williams crossed over and shook hands with him. Boutell returning the compliment when Williams had concluded. Resolutions calling on the post master general for information relative to the number of carriages maintained by the government for the post office department, was passed after a spirited debate.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The time of the senate, today, was again divided between the consideration of the Panama question, and other subjects. There was only one speech on the canal question, and it was made by Stone, of Missouri, who spoke to the resolution directing the senate committee on foreign relations to make an investigation into the Panama revolt. He contended that the circumstances indicated complicity on the part of the United States in the secession of Panama, and urged that in the interest of the country's good name, all the facts should be known. Hapburn, of Idaho, made his first speech in the senate, in support of the resolution, introduced by himself, prohibiting railroad companies from taking up land in a solid body, in lieu of land in forest reservations.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

(Special to Review.)

Washington, D. C., Jan. 26.—Judson Moore has been appointed postmaster at Chaystoval, vice F. M. Rahm resigned. Delegate Wilson introduced a bill today for the relief of Pima county, also a bill relating to certain mineral lands, now included in the Gila River Indian Reservation.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 26.—The senate today heard further discussion on the question of appointments to office, made during the congressional recesses and listened to a speech on the Isthmian Canal question, by Morgan, and passed a number of bills of a semi-public character. As a result of the debate on appointments, the question of the resolution, asking for specific information concerning the nomination of W. D. Crum, as collector of customs at port of Charleston, South Carolina, was passed. A resolution asking for similar information concerning nomination of Brigadier-General Wood and other army officers went over until tomorrow.

Feed the Brute Well, That's the Main Essential

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—The Social Economics club, an organization made up of women representing a score of woman's clubs, has been searching for the "essentials of a happy home."

Mrs. Edward A. Bigelow appears to have suggested one "essential," if the applause which has greeted her words by the "other half" can be taken as a criterion. She said: "Feed the brute good, well cooked food and forgive him."

The husband, father and provider was only mentioned incidentally, and as a possible thought not altogether an indispensable requisite.

Some of the women—in fact, the majority of them—were strongly of the opinion that the wife and mother was the chief essential.

The only good words said of the husband was this, by Mrs. Carroll, who lives in the country: "It must now and then occur to women, and even to the most advanced club women, that the home is not quite complete without the husband and father and provider. The wife and mother must recognize in him a piece of household furniture not altogether ornamental, only occasionally useful, but very much needed when wanted."

"It has taken ages of repression to being the husband and father to his present condition of abject slavery to the wife and mother. He is the victim of a process that began in the Garden of Eden and gives no promise of ending until he is called to the reward that awaits the humble on the other and brighter shore."

Serious Accident In Santa Rosa Mine

ONE MAN KILLED AND ANOTHER FATALLY INJURED.

Explosion of Powder Does Deadly Work—Investigation Party Leaves Douglas For the Scene of Accident.

(Special to Review.)

Douglas, Jan. 26.—A very serious accident occurred at the Santa Rosa mine at 6 o'clock this morning. One man was killed and another was so seriously injured that it was thought he would not live through the day. This accident resulted from an explosion of giant powder which had been placed on or near the blacksmith forge to thaw. From the particulars gathered up to this time the explosion was caused by the powder placed on the forge by the two men who sleep in the blacksmith shop. They laid down to go to sleep and while they were sleeping the powder exploded, killing one and the other is probably dead by this time.

Mr. Dendle, the superintendent, came into Douglas at once and took Dr. Wright to the mine to do what he could for the man who was still alive.

The Mexican authorities in Agua Prieta were at once notified and they have gone out to the Santa Rosa to investigate the affair.

Charles Bell, who was the manager until recently, has gone with the Agua Prieta comisario.

Mr. Bell was seen before he left Douglas and he said that he did not know who the injured men were. In speaking about the explosion, Mr. Bell said that powder did not always have to be close to a fire to be exploded by it. A sudden change in temperature will sometimes explode the high percent dynamite. If the explosive is put near a fire so that one end of a stick is heated while the other is exposed to a cold draught the contraction and expansion which, taking place at the same time, will cause the powder to explode.

There is reason to believe that the latter peculiarity of powder caused this morning's terrible accident.

BIG AUTO MEET IN THE SOUTH.

Ormond, Fla., Jan. 26.—The time for the big automobile race meet here, for which preparations have been making since last Fall, is at hand and Daytona and the neighboring resorts along East Coast are filled to overflowing with prominent moto enthusiasts, the number including both amateurs and professionals. Foremost among the amateurs is W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., while the professional class is represented by Barney Oldfield and others equally well known. Today and tomorrow will be given up to practice spins along the splendid racing course. The big events on the racing programs will be contested during the three days beginning next Thursday.

ANOTHER CANARD.

Readers of the Review will remember that a few days ago the papers from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from Montana to Mexico, were busy with the report that W. C. Greene, president of the Cananea Consolidated Copper company, had resigned his position. Last night the Review received the following telegram from Mr. Greene, who is at present in New York.

Bisbee Daily Review, Bisbee, Ariz.

Will you kindly state that I have not resigned and have no intention of resigning. Mr. Hawley has not been elected president of the Greene Consolidated Copper company and has no aspirations for that office.

Tombstone Man Dies

by Accidental Poisoning

(Special to the Review.)

Tombstone, Jan. 26.—S. M. Barrow, a leading merchant of this city, who recently retired from business, died this evening at 9 o'clock from accidental poisoning.

He and his wife were taken violently ill early this morning, shortly after eating breakfast. It was at first supposed that the poison had in some mysterious manner, been placed in the coffee, but this evening it was proven that the poisonous matter was in a can of corn which Mr. Barrow and wife had partaken of. At 11 o'clock tonight Mrs. Barrow is dangerously ill and it is not expected that she will survive. The death of her husband is not known to her and physicians have been in constant attention since an early hour this morning.

The deceased is an old resident of Cochise county, and has resided in Tombstone since 1879. Besides his wife there are three children in the family. Mr. Barrow retired from the mercantile business in this city only a few weeks ago and had amassed a small fortune.

Death Robs Court of Prison Sentence

A LONDON PRISONER EXPIRES SHORTLY AFTER JURY RENDERED VERDICT.

One Hour From the Time Sentence Was Passed the Prisoner Was Dead—Postmortem Will Be Held on Wednesday.

London, Jan. 26.—At 3 o'clock this afternoon, Whitaker Wright, was sentenced to seven years penal servitude. At 4 o'clock he lay dead on the floor of the small room in the law courts. Whether he took his own life by poison, or whether death in its natural course, robbed the law of its fulfillment, will not be known until a post-mortem examination is held; indicated.

Called On Her Friends to Witness Sensational Suicide

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Weary of existence, Miss Lillian Breen, of Paterson, N. J., most dramatically ended her life before a number of young friends, who gathered at her summons, last evening.

Miss Breen was well known in Paterson. She took her place on a high stoop at Washington, and Grand streets, and there calmly remained until she saw several young men, whom she knew, approaching. She beckoned to them and called smilingly, "Come here! Come here!"

Apparently in high good humor, she joked with them and when she saw other friends she called them until a score or more stood around her. Then her gay demeanor changed.

"Boys," she said, solemnly "I'm tired of living. Now I'm going to end it all."

The young men laughed.

"What new joke is this?" asked some lightly.

But Miss Breen was in deadly earnest. Before any one could stay her arm she took from her coat pocket a small bottle of carbolic acid, drew the cork with her teeth, and poured the poison down her throat.

It was all done as with one gesture, lightning quick.

"There—it's all over," she gasped and laughing hysterically, tossed away the bottle. Almost instantly she sank to the floor in agony. An ambulance hurried her to the general hospital, where she died, her scarred lips murmuring thanks for the release she had sought so deliberately.

FATAL MINE ACCIDENT.

Victor, Colo., Jan. 26.—As a result of an accident this morning at Stratton's Independence mine, fifteen men are dead and one severely injured. The men were being hoisted in the cage when part of the machinery became deranged, causing a strain on the cable, and breaking it. The cage dropped 1,500 feet to the bottom of the shaft. The military authorities, all day, have been investigating the cause of the accident, but refuse to make public their decision, if any has been reached.

The dead are: W. R. Frasier, John Sebeck, Joe Smitherum, Edward T. Wiggon, L. S. Wagoner, H. A. Yoeman, Edward Smith, Joe Overly, H. F. Brown, Collins, J. Stewart, Frank Cochran, Harry Cogese, L. P. Jackson, C. C. Staton.

Douglas Visited by Bold Burglars

FIVE HOUSES ENTERED ON TUESDAY NIGHT IN SMELTER CITY.

Followers of the Carnival are Plying Their Vocation in the Border City—A Number of Losers.

(Special to Review.)

Douglas, Jan. 26.—Last night a bunch of burglars began operations early in the evening and put in a good eight hours shift which netted them good returns.

They were professionals at the business and have, up to this time, kept out of the clutches of the law.

Three houses were visited by these thieves before 11 o'clock last night, those of W. Overholser, H. E. Stone and B. C. Wyse. Each was ransacked and various articles taken. These houses are near together, between avenues B and C and streets Nine and Eleven.

All of the houses were entered while the people were out. A skeleton key was used to get into all the houses and after getting in the burglars took their time to hunt for valuables. Mr. Overholser had a new Colt's revolver taken from his house, from Wyse's house a gold watch belonging to Mrs. Brinck was stolen and Mr. Stone lost $60 and several small articles.

From the appearances Overholser's house was the last one the thieves visited, for they left in a hurry, not having completed their search through the drawers in the dresser and trunk which they began.

From the tracks about the house it is evident that there were three men in the gang, that did the burglarizing. Bert Holloway's house was also broken into and a small sum of money taken.

An effort was made to break into O. O. Hamill's house, but the house breakers did not succeed in getting in, the chances are that they were frightened by some passer by, or by some people coming home from the show.

The local officers are completely at sea as to the identity of the burglars; they have no clues and so far no arrests have been made. These bold burglaries have created great excitement about town. Officers should patrol the residence portion of the city all this week and give the people some protection.

N. C. Hanson's house would have been robbed by this gang had not the people returned home just as they did. The three men were attempting to open the door just as the Hansons returned home. The burglars took to their heels when they saw that they would be caught.

Mr. Holloway was robbed of a six shooter and a watch.

Mr. Bryan says that Mr. Blank is his candidate for president—"some dark horse." Many think this points towards Carter Harrison. May be Mr. Bryan's dark horse is "May'r."

JAP FORCES ARE SENT FORWARD

TO PROTECT WEALTHY NATIVES IN KOREA FROM THE SOLDIERS.

JAPAN WANTS ANSWER

Intimates to Russia That Sufficient Time Has Elapsed For Preparation of Answer to Japan's Last Note—Utmost Secrecy Observed.

Seoul, Jan. 26.—One hundred thousand Japanese have been sent to Pienyang, to insure the safety of the people, it having been reported that the houses of the wealthy natives there were being looted by Korean soldiers and police, disguised as robbers.

The report that the Americans are acting in collusion with members of the Russian legation at Seoul, is entirely without foundation.

The emperor invited to the palace, five French and Belgian civilians to act as a body guard, as he apparently fears Japanese intrusion.

The Japanese have asked, pointedly, which side the emperor favors, as they wish to know if he is still favorable to the Russian cause.

Tokio, Jan. 26.—The Japanese government has diplomatically intimated to Baron DeRosin, Russian minister, that an early response is desired to Japan's recent note to Russia.

It is calculated here that the Japanese note reached the Russian cabinet on the afternoon of January 16, and it is felt that sufficient time has elapsed for its consideration and preparation of a response. The length of time that Japan is prepared to wait the pleasure of Russia is unknown. It seems probable that it had been determined to act decisively within a few days. Popular temper has long opposed further delay. While many objected to Japan's taking the initiative, a majority would now welcome the issuance of a brief ultimatum, and declaration of war, if that should prove ineffective. Some outside opinion here inclines to the belief that the activities of Japan will be limited to the seizure of Korea which enterprise, it is thought, Russia would not oppose. The Japanese government proceeds with absolute secrecy and the people of Japan are even not informed of the exact nature of the demands made on Russia.

BRYAN ACCEPTS INVITATION.

Frankford, Ky., Jan. 26.—W. J. Bryan telegraphed today his acceptance of the invitation of the House to deliver an address here, February 23, on the occasion of Goebel memorial day exercises. The House today practically killed resolutions endorsing the president's action in the Panama matter. The senate last week took similar action by sending the resolution to a hostile committee. The House by a viva voce vote killed a resolution to invite President Roosevelt to address the legislature.

Big Tucson Hotel.

All arrangements are being made to open the Santa Rita hotel February 1, without fail. The upper floor is now completely finished and elegantly furnished and the second and third floors will be finished this week. Forty-five rooms are already engaged to be occupied as soon as the hostelry is opened.

Was the destruction of the Venezuela fleet by Germany and England a vindication of the Monroe Doctrine?—or was it the same sort of vindication we are exhibiting in seizing Panama? Mr. Gorman asks "would President Roosevelt have permitted Spain or Turkey or any weak nation to seize Venezuela's fleet?"

Word comes from Texas that it will send to Chicago a solid delegation of republicans for Roosevelt—exclusively for nominating purposes, of course.
